lailriad is of more importance to Milwaukee perhaps, then any other in the Cato as should be constructed at an early day, it will bring to t a vast amount of business, that will otherwise to some other point. Change is making every fort to draw to houself, business that naturally chance to Milwaukee By her milroads projected and being built, traversing our state from south to north through its interior, she will accomplish her purpose, unless Milwaukee wakes ap and makes that effort to secure and keep her own, which she has the ability to do, and that at once Should she neglect the present opportuna ty, she will find when too late, that her southern reighbor has stripped her of her lautels and placed her in a very disadvantageous condition Never was there better or portuenty offere i for uding forward an enterprise and securing a trade of the last corportance than this. The La Process and Milwankee Rail Road, when complated to Honcon will allow of the speedy completion of the Milwaukee and Horicon Rail Road to Berlin-n distance of forty two miles in theimaking a distance in the right direction of Lake Superior, of 93 miles, and that too, on a route the est yet found , when this road is constructed to in advance of any other in that direction, that with a moderate degree of energy, rivalry will be out of the question By the report of the Milwarkee and Horicon Rail Rued Company, its affairs seem to be in an excellent condition, so much so, that with an easy money market, there would seem to be no loubt of its being able, without difficulty, to rate money on far rarms to push the road through to Berlin this season But, notwithstanding atl this, Milwaukee oughs not to rest easy, till she sees the work completed it is a matter too vital to be left to the changes of any conting very This road once constructed to Lake Superior, and the vast business of the mining region turned into the lap of Milwankee, no after enterprise could strip her of it or even divide it with her Chicago with her Galesa Road connections via Beloit, Madison and Portage City may come plodding along after, but too late to carry off the prize But to prevent it, Milwaukee must wake

Much Ado about Nothing. Gry Kine I find that my little P S of one line, has greatly disturbed your equanimity. The sentinel of this morning is loaded with over a hair column of violent tirade against it, and even then it seems as if your mind was hardly relieved I am aware of your morbid passion for for it finding and scolding, and am glad that you have at length found something to my administration which offers you an opportunity of letting of a little of that excess of one with which you are habitually so much inflated. Had I retired without giving you such an opportunity, I fear there rould have been an explosion which would have deprived the nublic of your valuable services fit after time " The Seatinel is entirely innocent of over having found any thing in my course to approve, and I am hunny to have done somethiuz before my re iroment, which you can conderin. It always gratifies me to make others happy and as you chief pleasure has in fault finding, I hope you will feel duly grateful for the opportunity which I have afforded you of being happy in your own

#6y The intelligent portion of you readers, howeyer, will not fail to see in the same number the Sentinel an antidote to the vituperation o your labored comments. In your asuce of th lection, you begin thus—"The election yester day for Only and Ward officers passed off quiet " and close thus -" A gratifying degree of or ier provailed at all the polis, and throughout the city."

Now if my little P S had been the harbinger of all the evils which seem to na e haunted your prolific fancy, you would hardly have been able to make the peaceful announcement which thu sdorns your leading cditorial of this morning out on the contrary, your columns would have teemed with accounts of drunkenness, riots, blooand murder, and you, and the " hundreds of oth ers" of whom you speak, that were so 'star iled" by that little postecript, would have been fairly trightened cut of town. The cause of that "quiet and order." will which you seem so well satisfied, laid deeps than any nonce given by you or me, on the sub act of closing inquor shops. Had nothing cla been done, I fear that our fond hopes of orde and quiet, growing out of this nolification, wou' have been saddy desappointed. This was one ver proper reason as I conceived, or I should not hav adopted it for notwithstanding our solicitation here were but few shops really closed, and ther gere abundant means of intexication, accessible to all who desired it But this was, I presumall important in your estimation, because it wa the only one of all the measures adopted in which you co-operated. I could name to you, howeve others for more potent, if necessary, of which vo have no knowledge, but it would hardly be ap propriate here Suffice it to sey, that during a diministration, we have had the usual quantit of elections, and other causes of public excitment, but have had no mobs, nor disturbances and agreeably to your own showing, during the time, almost a continued milleurum has prevaile -- 'the city has been peaceable and quiet an l the Chancellor and even Reporter in danger of s
